Re: United States vs. Adams (1:24-cr-00556-DEH)

Dear Judge Ho:

We write to clarify our original request. We are requesting one appearance before Your Honor for both the arraignment and initial appearance. Counsel is engaged from the afternoon of Wednesday, October 3, through Friday, October 5, on another matter. Counsel respectfully requests a single appearance for both purposes at any time next Monday, September 30, or Tuesday, October 1, before the Court. If the only availability of the Court for both matters is Wednesday, as originally set, we would ask the Court to reset the appearance for Wednesday.

Very truly yours,

Alex Spiro

Application GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The Court is in receipt of the emails from Defendant's counsel attached to this endorsement. The initial appearance and arraignment will proceed on September 27 before the Magistrate Judge on duty, as previously scheduled in accordance with Defendant's initial request. See ECF No. 6.

The initial conference shall be rescheduled to Wednesday, October 2, 2024, at 10:30 a.m. in a courtroom to be determined by the Court.

The Clerk of Court is respectfully requested to close ECF No. 10.

SO ORDERED.

DALE E. HO
United States District Judge

Your Honor,

We write to respectfully request that, in light of certain logistical problems, the Court reset Mr. Adam's arraignment and initial appearance to Wednesday, October 4th. The government did not object to altering the arraignment schedule. In the alternative, we are available anytime Monday or Tuesday.

Sincerely,
Rachel
